He said his office also had a list of the members of the Fair Play for Cuba organization and related information but that he could not furnish this unless authorized to do so by Colonel Burbank of the State Police. He said he had no reason to believe that Colonel Burbank would not authorize him to furnish it, but he would check with him and if he gave his approval, he, Capt. Norton would send the list along with the other items requested by a state trooper. This material was delivered in the office on the morning of 11-27-63.

All of the material furnished has been [illegible] but none of the names mentioned have been associated with any of the persons [illegible] investigated at the present time.

On 11-26-63, with SA Gerrets, a [illegible] Clay, 1116 Canal St., phone Hunter 2-4618, where we interviewed [illegible], former schoolmate of Lee Harvey Oswald.

He stated that in either 1954 or 1955 [illegible] joined the Civil Air Patrol, Moisant Unit, Jefferson Parish. He also should attended about four meetings and then dropped out, giving as his reason for doing so the fact that it was a considerable distance from his home on Fechter Place to Moisant Airport.

Voebel said when he joined the CAP, Capt. Fave Parrie, a former pilot or co-pilot for Delta or Eastern Airlines, was the commander. He could not say if Capt. Parrie was the commander at the time Oswald joined. He said he does not know if Oswald was acquainted with Parrie, who is alleged to be a homosexual.

Voebel said he has had no contact with Oswald in the past eight years. He promised to contact this office in the event he should think of anything that would be of value to this office.

Voebel did mention that he collects guns. Further, that he has an Italian-make rifle of the same type as the one allegedly used to shoot the President; that he shot this rifle several times, but it is so poorly constructed he decided that it was best not to shoot it anymore for the reason he was afraid it would explode.

A local attorney, Dean Andrews, with whom SAIC Rice is acquainted, had informed SAIC Rice that a person furnishing his name as Clay Bertrand had called him and asked him if he was interested in defending Oswald. (The full particulars concerning the call received from Mr. Andrews will be set forth in a report to be submitted by SAIC Rice.)

There are a number of Bertrands listed in the New Orleans Telephone Book. None listed are named Clay. There is a Charles A. Bertrand, 1321 Arnoville St. Park, phone 521-7327. Assuming that the Charles C. could stand for Charles Clay, on 11-26-63 by phone contacted Mrs. Charlene Bertrand, Apt. C, 1321 Arnoville St. Park. She stated her husband's full name is Charles Clay Bertrand, that he is a doctor and could be contacted at the Admit and Accident Room, Charity Hospital, New Orleans, 525-4311. She stated she did not know anyone named Clay Bertrand.

On 11-26-63 with SA Gerrets called at Pan American Films, 802 N. Rampart St., City, and obtained a roll of film in accordance with the previous arrangements made by SAIC Rice.
